

1. Now let our souls on wings sub - lime, Rise from the va - ni - ties of time, Draw back the part - ing veil and see The gl

2. Born by a new ce - les - tial birth, Why should we grovel here on earth? Why grasp at tran - si - to - ry toys, So ne

3. Shall aught beguile us on the road, When we are walking back to God? For strangers in - to life we come, And d

4. Welcome sweet hour of full dis - charge, That sets our longing souls at large, Unbinds our chains, breaks up our cell, And giv

5. To dwell with God, to feel his love, Is the full heav'n enjoyed a - bove; And the sweet ex - pec - ta - tion now, Is the